An Evening of “Perfect Pairings” Introduced by the Sudbury Symphony Orchestra

Sudbury, ON March 18th, 2013 – The Sudbury Symphony Orchestra presents “Perfect Pairings” on April 4, 2013 at Fromagerie Elgin (5 Cedar Street, Sudbury).

“Perfect Pairings” is an intimate evening including great conversation and spectacular food. This inspiring event will feature candid discussions with the Sudbury Symphony String Quartet as they incorporate music and themes from their 2012.2013 & 2013.2014 seasons. The event will be hosted by CBC’s Jessica Pope and is proudly supported by Prom Music Centre.

This is the first time the Sudbury Symphony will be performing at Fromagerie Elgin. This new venue and concert style will hopefully encourage those who have never experienced the orchestra’s performance to discover the exhilarating culture of classical music. “We believe that our music can tell a story, and Fromagerie Elgin is a great place to socialize and showcase those stories to our public in an inviting atmosphere.” explains Dawn Cattapan, Executive Director of the Sudbury Symphony. “This is a great way for our audience to get to know our musicians on a more personal level while they share their favorite memories and music.”

Tickets to attend “Perfect Pairings” are $50 and will include admittance, delicious appetizers and a glass of wine. This fundraising concert promises to be an evening not to forget, as music and conversation; good food and company come together in perfect pairings.
