

“Perfect Pairings” Returns to the Sudbury Symphony Orchestra

Special Concert sold out in 2012.2013 season

Sudbury, ON March 31st, 2014 – What could be better than listening to great music live while enjoying a glass of wine and a few cheese-themed snacks?

Nothing, says the Sudbury Symphony Orchestra, which is why they’ve dubbed the concert “Perfect Pairings.” The second installment of this hit concert series will be presented at 7:30pm on April 4, 2014 at Fromagerie Elgin (5 Cedar Street, Sudbury).

The concert is an intimate evening including great conversation and spectacular food. This inspiring event will feature candid discussions with the Sudbury Symphony String Quartet as they trace legendary works by classical masters to the songs those composers have inspired. The event will be hosted by CBC’s Jessica Pope.

“Perfect Pairings” marks the second time that the Sudbury Symphony will perform at Fromagerie Elgin. The casual venue and concert style struck a chord with audiences, after the SSO’s first “Perfect Pairings” concert was a sold-out success in the 2012.2013 season. “We had to turn people away at the door last year,” SSO Executive Director Dawn Cattapan advised. “If there is anyone considering coming to this amazing night, we encourage them to get tickets beforehand to avoid disappointment.” The concert also allows audience members to gain unprecedented access to musicians with conversations during intermission, as well as a built-in Q&A period at the end of the concert.

Tickets to attend “Perfect Pairings” are $50 and will include admittance, delicious appetizers and a glass of wine. This fundraising concert promises to be an evening not to forget, as music and conversation; source and inspiration; good food and company come together in perfect pairings.
